

Building Campaign for the Future of Children of All Abilities

through June 30th, 2015

Playground Dedicated at the Ashley Booth Griffin CARE for Children Center

CARE for Children completed the last major component of the building project in 2014-2015 with the dedication of the playground at the center. A ribbon cutting ceremony was held on Wednesday, May 27th, for the playground which is specifically designed for children ages 2 to 7 and has many adaptive components for children with mobility challenges.

A prominent feature of the new playground is Ryan's Rainbow Lodge Play House. The playhouse was made possible largely by a senior project coordinated by former Bradford Area High School students Rachel Anderson and Marissa Cobb. The money raised for the benefit was given to CARE's building campaign, in memory of Rachel's cousin Ryan Moonan, and designated to the playground.

Ryan's mother Martha Morris and Ryan's family and friends were instrumental in planning and funding the playhouse for the site. Martha wanted the playhouse to mirror Ryan's love of the outdoors and nature and have it be functional as a spot for outdoor instruction as well as play.

"We are so happy that Ryan's family has provided this special spot for the children who attend CARE's early learning programs and who participate in CARE's summer therapeutic recreation programs," said Tina Martin, executive director. "Martha and her family not only raised the funds for the lodge but also made curtains, decorated the space, purchased easels, bought and stained child-size Adirondack furniture, and overall made a special place that children will enjoy for years to come."

In addition to Ryan's Rainbow Lodge, the playground features a large play structure, smaller playhouses, picnic tables constructed by the carpentry class at FCI McKean, and a raised bed garden.

Other lead gifts included the swing set and adaptive swing from Rotary District #7280. An additional sixty individual donors and organizations have contributed to CARE's playground project including in-kind gifts of services which were instrumental in site preparation and provided by American Refining Group, Cline Oil Company, Lang Surveying, CMB Landscaping and CJ Wallace Engineering.
